EAGE

EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION OF GEOSCIENTISTS &
ENGINEERS

EAGE is a multi-disciplinary geoscience association with over 15,000 members worldwide. The association offers several scientific journals, including flagship magazine First Break, and Near Surface Geophysics. With a subscription to one of these journals, subscribers now get full online access to the latest event papers from EAGE's annual meetings!

First Break print & online

First Break is EAGE's (monthly) magazine and one of the leading publications serving the geoscience and engineering community. First Break publishes top-quality submitted and commissioned research articles, together with news, monthly topics, industry features and company profiles.
