

PROFILE PUBLICATIONS OFFICER

An elected candidate for Publications Officer first serves a term of two years in the board and may be re-elected twice to a maximum of six years of tenure.

Responsibilities

- Attend the board meetings, who meet five times per year: the Friday meeting of the annual conference in June (start of President's tenure), September, December, March and the Sunday meeting of the annual conference in June. An additional meeting may be held when actual developments require so.
- Chair of the Publications Committee, which coordinates the EAGE journals, develops editorial and marketing policy for the journals, and gives advice to the Board.
- Chair of the editorial board of the association's journal First Break.
- Together with the editorial boards of the journals published under EAGE's name maintaining the editorial policy of those journals.

Commitment

- Travelling to board meetings: a board meeting is normally spread over two days (one full and one half day). The meetings are predominantly held at the office in Houten (the Netherlands), but can also be organised at the location of an EAGE event.
- Representing the association at the annual conference & exhibition (6 days, June).
- Stay connected with the publications department at the Houten office.

Requirements

- EAGE member in good standing.
- Demonstrated active membership.
- Scientific background and an esteemed editor.
- Excellent intercultural communication skills.
- Excellent written communications skills.
- Permission to travel.